SPEAKERS

Michael Furness QC (Head of Chambers)
Wilberforce Chambers

Michael began his career at the Bar as a private client trust lawyer and this work still forms an important part of his practice. He advises on and conducts UK and international succession and trust disputes, as well as conducting tax litigation for tax authorities and taxpayers.

Last year he appeared in a major trust litigation in Bermuda and London (a seven week trial in the case of Labrouche v Frey). Recent tax cases include Samarkand Partnership (2015) Mayes v HMRC (2012) and P L Travers Will Trust (2013). He also conducts litigation in Hong Kong, which includes three appearances in the Court of Final Appeal.

Clare Stanley QC
Wilberforce Chambers

Clare is a specialist in commercial disputes including cross-border insolvency actions and fraud, trust and probate litigation and associated professional liability claims. Many of her cases involve offshore proceedings and Clare is well used to appearing and advising on matters before the Courts across many of the major offshore jurisdictions including Cayman and the BVI.

Clare is also consistently recommended in the leading directories and has recently been described by Chambers & Partners as "highly intelligent, strategic and provides commercial advice combined with excellent advocacy skills.", "... an adept litigator who frequently acts in offshore jurisdictions." The Legal 500 describes her as "commercial in her approach and gutsy when needed; very popular with clients."

Jonathan Hilliard QC
Wilberforce Chambers

Jonathan was appointed QC in 2016. He has a broad trusts and commercial practice. Much of his time is spent on private, pension and other commercial fiduciary disputes and fraud disputes, frequently with a significant offshore or other international angle. His litigation often takes him into other areas of law, and he has significant experience of cases with insolvency, regulatory, family and public law elements.

Jonathan has been listed as one of the ten future stars of the Bar in The Times and is ranked in the relevant practice areas in the legal directories. Chambers & Partners for example state that for offshore work "his knowledge of trust law is second to none for someone of his level and he is prepared to put the work first" and for traditional chancery that he is "one of the brightest barristers around".

Robert Wynn Jones
Mishcon de Reya

Robert specialises in civil fraud. He has acted for both claimants and defendants, obtaining and opposing multiple search orders, asset freezing orders and delivery-up orders in large cross-jurisdictional commercial disputes. He has also been involved in a substantial number of data theft and recovery cases using these civil fraud injunctive procedures. Such cases often involve allegations of breaches of restrictive covenants. Robert has also acted on intellectual property cases involving brand protection. Industry sectors in which he has worked include hedge funds, banking and finance, information technology, recruitment, energy, pharmaceuticals, telecommunications and property development.

Robert also has a large general commercial litigation practice and significant experience in professional negligence matters, breach of contract disputes and directors and minority shareholder disputes. Robert has written articles concerning various matters including data theft and search orders, asset freezing orders and delivery-up orders in property, recruitment and other industry publications.

Robert is a member of The International Fraud Group. The IFG is a handpicked group of specialist fraud lawyers across 14 countries focused on securing injunctions, asset recovery and trust busting remedies in key offshore jurisdictions.
